SILVER ECHOES

A Gold Digger Novel

Based on a true story, Silver Echoes unmask the hidden life of Silver Dollar Tabor, an infamous Roaring Twenties legend.

Silver Echoes Reader's Discussion Guide

1. Silver Dollar faced many traumas at a very young age that caused her to create an “imaginary friend.” What were some of the possible traumas named and unnamed in the novel? (For further reading: Coping with Trauma-Related Dissociation by Suzette Boon, Kathy Steele, Onno Van Der Hart)
2. What emotions seemed to trigger the reemergence of “Echo” in Silver’s life? How did Echo help Silver initially? How did Echo seem to change as time went on?
3. Was Silver Dollar’s retaliation to Rockwell’s attack warranted? Why or why not? What should she have done?
4. What were Silver’s feelings about her Tabor family members, and what was her behavior toward them? What did she long to have happen?
5. What twists of fate affected Silver’s life? How? Have you experienced twists of fate that changed your life?
6. How did the price of silver ore correlate to Silver’s life?
7. Why did Baby Doe Tabor agree to work with Carl Ericson on the Tabor film script?
8. What was the mother-daughter relationship like between Baby Doe and Silver Dollar? What about Lily?
9. What did Baby Doe really think happened to Silver Dollar? Why did she tell people that Silver was in a convent?
10. What was Dante Rossi’s role in the Chicago Outfit and how did it change over time? What was Silver Dollar to him? What did he want from the Matchless Mine?

11. How did Rockwell become involved with the Chicago Outfit and how did it affect Baby Doe and the Matchless?
12. Lily was a leader of the Women's Christian Temperance Union protesting alcohol during the Prohibition. How did that affect her opinion about Silver Dollar? Where did she get her information about Silver Dollar?
13. There was strong racial divide during the 1920s in Chicago resulting in race riots, deaths and the strong presence of the Ku Klux Klan. How did the racial tensions affect Silver Dollar?
14. Over time, how did Silver feel about the tigers? How did it mirror what was happening to her?
15. What was Baby Doe's goal with the Matchless Mine? How and why did it change?
16. What world and country events affected the Tabors and how?
